

STUDENT PROGRAM COORDINATOR

AT FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

ALLIES & SAFE ZONES

NOW HIRING
Priority Deadline, March 16

Coordinate Florida State University Allies & Safe Zone Training program. Includes presenting Allies & Safe Zones workshops, developing new content for ongoing learning, ongoing program assessment, and serving as a resource across campus. Organize participants' levels of involvement, research effective training and information strategies, collaborate with students and departments, and provide support and direction for inclusion across campus. Manage website and listserv components, develop regular communication and maintain advertising and assessment of workshop activities. Coordinate the facilitation team through training, session assignment, and ongoing partnerships.

Advise the Pride Student Union including meeting with leaders, attending events, and assisting in developing and achieving goals. Interpret, apply, and ensure compliance with Student Body Statutes, the Florida Administrative Code, State of Florida Statutes and Laws, and the rules and regulations of the Florida State University. Attend meetings and programs and support initiatives.

Serve on University-Wide Committees, particularly regarding large-scale SGA programs such as Awareness months, Healthy Campus initiatives, Hazing Prevention, Green Dot, and collaborative programs. Plan, attend, assess, and coordinate events as a committee member. Collaborate with outside departments, establishing and maintaining strong working relationships and providing understanding for the department.

Serve on the advising and professional staff team for the Student Government Association. Attend and support SGA events, establish connections with students, have overall knowledge of SGA and Florida State University. Advise additional student organizations and SGA entities as assigned. Participate in departmental initiatives and practices, including staff training, graduate intern supervision, and student employment management.

Oversee and implement programs in the areas of leadership development, ally development, identity development, multicultural competence, fiscal responsibility, and event management.

FSU is located in Tallahassee, FL. Known for its natural beauty and proximity to the gulf coast beaches, it is home to the state capital, two major universities, and a growing metropolitan community of 190,000.

Tallahassee shares a deep-rooted history and culture with unparalleled nature and outdoor recreation. A fusion of cosmopolitan flair and charming personality defines the spirit of Florida's Capital City. Stretching along the Florida Panhandle, Tallahassee is a place where college town meets cultural center, politics meets performing arts, and history meets nature--a place where the vibrancy of what to do is matched only by the city's inviting hospitality. Tallahassee offers many opportunities for recreational and cultural activities, and is within a half-day drive to Jacksonville, Orlando, Tampa, and Atlanta.

Go Noles!

Florida State University is one of the largest universities in Florida with a diverse student population of approximately 41,000 from all 50 states and more than 115 countries. One of the nation's elite research universities, Florida State University — with the Carnegie Foundation's highest designation, Doctoral/Research University-Extensive — is currently on a mission to become a 'Top 25' nationally ranked public university. Florida State offers a distinctive academic environment built on its cherished values and unique heritage, a welcoming campus, and prime location in the heart of the state capital. Recognized nationally for its commitment to diversity, Florida State University is a national leader in the number of doctorates awarded to African-American students and in the graduation rate of African-American undergraduates. Its College of Medicine and College of Law are among the Top 10 best in the nation for Hispanic students. Beyond academia, Florida State also has a top NCAA Division I Sports program with recent conference and national titles in football, women's basketball, baseball, and women's soccer.

QUALIFICATIONS

Bachelor's degree is required; Master's degree in Higher Education Student Affairs or related field, experience working with student organizations, identity based groups, Ally Development programs, and on a college campus is strongly preferred.

Knowledge and understanding of the basic levels of ACPA/NASPA core competencies.

HOW TO APPLY

Successful applicants will include a cover letter, resume and contact information for three references. All applications must be submitted via <http://jobs.fsu.edu>.

Priority Deadline, March 16

Reference Job ID: 42969

DEPARTMENTAL MISSION STATEMENT

The staff of the department of Student Government at Florida State University assist students in reaching their full potential. With a focus on leadership and identity development, belonging and inclusion, civic engagement and participation, and financial responsibility and stewardship, SGA staff advocate and support traditions, initiatives, and communities that benefit the student body.

The Student Government Association at Florida State University provides FSU students with representation, services and advocacy within the university structure. The Student Government Association provides quality leadership for, and accountability to its constituency by recognizing the strength that arises from diversity, engagement, and dialogue.

SGA is currently a part of the Union renovation project with plans to move into a new Student Union with expansive student engagement space in Fall 2020. SGA's Black Student Union recently opened a state of the art, two-story building replacing their previous house, with opportunities for programming and academic collaboration.

Since revamping the Allies & Safe Zones program in 2013, over 1,350 students, faculty, staff, and community members have engaged in our tiered workshop model.

We are excited for you to join our vibrant team!

<http://sga.fsu.edu>