Whereas: The Naming Ad-Hoc Committee is only ad hoc committee specifically outlined in the Rules of Procedure

Whereas: Senators, Agency leaders, and other RSO leaders are required to go through extensive and complex procedures for any renaming under the current Rules of Procedure

Whereas: The Naming Ad-Hoc Committee primarily focuses on detailing the procedure for community outreach, which is already implicit in the role of Student Senators,

Be it resolved by the Seventy-second Student Senate the Florida State University that:
The following rules be amended as follows:

10.17 Senate Naming Procedure: Any Senator may, at any time during New Business, make a motion to create a Naming ad hoc committee the name for any Senate title, award, or recognition, any title of an SGA Office, Agency, Bureau, or Affiliated project, and any other entity outlined in Student Body Statutes. For the motion to be accepted, ten senators must stand in support of the formation of a naming committee. A committee will be formed, on which, at least, one representative from each of the standing committees must be part of the ad hoc committee.

The committee must:

- a. The Senate President will appoint a chair who must notify agency and bureau directors of an ongoing naming process. The chair must encourage them to invite their members and affiliates to offer input to the committee. The chair will also share the naming meeting time, location, and minutes with all agency and bureau directors.
- b. Gather student feedback. Student feedback can come from the agencies, bureaus, and/or campus wide surveys, social media posts, or other outlets of expression. A real and concerted effort to collect student feedback must be proven and retained as part of the documents submitted with the final legislation.
- c. Present a resolution for the proposed name change to Rules and Calendar, where the committee must include student input, student survey feedback, articles, interviews, awards 29 and accolades, (if applicable) regarding the subject that is in question.
- d. Pending approval in Rules and Calendar, the resolution of the proposed award name change will be forwarded to senate as a whole for a vote.
