- A. Impeachment of a student body officer shall require a majority vote of the Student Senate Judiciary Committee followed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the full Senate.
- B. Before the Senate Judiciary Committee votes to initiate impeachment proceedings, the committee must notify the accused officer via the official's FSU email address, at least one week prior to the impeachment hearing. Such notification shall also include the time, date, and place of the Judiciary Committee hearing pertaining to the impeachment proceedings. The accused shall have the right to speak in their defense at the hearing, to refuse to appear, to remain silent, and to refer to counsel at any time. At the conclusion of the hearing the committee shall openly deliberate and then vote by open ballot on whether or not to recommend impeachment to the full Senate.
- C. If the Judiciary Committee votes to recommend impeachment, the impeachment charge shall be brought before the Student Senate at the next scheduled Senate session and presented for a vote at that session.
- ~~D. The full Student Senate shall determine its own rules of procedure concerning any cases of impeachment, however, the proceedings must conclude with a vote by open ballot on whether or not to formally impeach the accused officer.~~

D. The senator considered for impeachment shall have 5 minutes to speak in his/her defense. This time may be split between an opening statement and a closing statement. Following the opening statement of the accused, the Senate shall openly deliberate until a motion is made to vote on the candidate for impeachment. The accused will then have the option to make a closing statement, only if there is time yielded from the opening statement. The Senate will then vote by open ballot on whether or not to formally impeach the accused officer.
