Report of the Speaker:
- Next semester Deputy Speaker Hall will begin attending the GSA committee as a representative from COGS and would also like a music department representative.
- For four years COGS has assisted the Center for Leadership and Social Change in paying for expenses to bring a Nobel Peace Prize winner to the FSU campus for PeaceJam. PeaceJam is during the spring semester and there will be a full weekend of events. Representatives are encouraged to visit their website for more details and to be mindful that the organization who plans PeaceJam will submit a funding request soon.

Report of the Deputy Speaker for Finance
- Deputy Speaker Hall reviews the financial report with the representatives and explains the different budget accounts.
• C-SAC needs an additional member for the committee. Anna Ward volunteers to join the C-SAC committee.
• A funding request was submitted for COGS to add additional funds into the unallocated account.

Report of the Deputy Speaker for Judicial Affairs:
• The rule of attendance is reviewed for new members.

Report of the Deputy Speaker of Communication
• Deputy Speaker Akinfaderin informs representatives of the Open Access conference in Washington, D.C. and encourages representatives to visit their website for additional information.
• New representatives are asked to join COGS’ social media pages.

Ways & Means:
• Cory Luttrell was elected the new chair and Deputy Speaker Hall as the new vice chair for the committee.
