Organization: If/When/How: Lawyering for Reproductive Justice

Date/time of event: September 13, 2022

Amount Requested: $161.65

Purpose of funds: If/When/How at FSU Law- Introductory Meeting

This will be our first meeting of the year to provide new and interested students with the information that might reveal their passion for reproductive justice. Last year, the organization really lost traction since all we had was the introductory meeting. This is unacceptable given the current state of reproductive rights post-Roe being overturned. I hope to return this organization to its former glory and more, as it is necessary now more than ever since reproductive choice in the US is not guaranteed post-Roe.

We will be discussing the umbrella of what public interest is, as well as the different ways to get involved in the community if one is interested in public interest work. We will also be discussing our plans for the semester and opportunities for involvement in the Public Interest Law Students Association. We plan to invite students to talk about their past public interest experiences in order to show the range of what public interest encompasses. Publix subs will be served.
