Purpose of funds: Trial Team Spring Try-Outs

Spring Try-Outs are the main recruiting opportunity for the FSU Trial Team. The week of try-out consists of three days of law students giving their prepared opening and closing statements and being judged by a jury panel. The try-outs are open to all FSU law students and provide an unparalleled opportunity for "practice and pitch." The law students who try out familiarize themselves with a competition packet, prepare both sides of the case, and present their statements. The Spring Try-Outs are a fundamental part of the trial team experience and equips the trial team with the next group of competition litigators.
