Panera

- Deluxe Assortment ($96.19)

Purpose of funds: Lunch Social

We want to start the new year and semester with a lunch meeting, during which we will discuss OUTLaw’s goals for the semester so that OUTLaw members know what to expect and look forward to. During this meeting, we want to provide lunch for our members. The date and time used to create the quotes from Panera were an example, and may not be the actual date and time of the event. We think that Panera is a really good catering option for this event because of the variety of food available at a reasonable price. The “Deluxe Assortment” we chose offers several different types of sandwiches, including vegetarian sandwiches, as well as salad, cookies, chips, and a baguette. The variety will allow us to serve people of most dietary preferences and restrictions.

Swank Motion Pictures, INC.

- Licensing fee ($450)

Purpose of funds: OUTLaw Movie Night

We want to host an event to show the classic LGBTQ+ film, "Brokeback Mountain," which is about two queer men finding love while working as seasonal sheep herding cowboys in the mountains of the American midwest between the 1960s and 1980s. Important themes in the film include period-appropriate homophobia and lack of legal protections for LGBTQ+ persons. We also plan to eat cowboy-theme appropriate BBQ during the showing of the film. This request, however, is only for the funding to pay for the licensing fee to show the film. After checking many different movie licensing companies, Swank Motion Pictures was the only company that appeared to have the licensing for Brokeback Mountain available.
