Purpose of funds: Interest Meeting

We will be hosting an informational meeting to tell students the duties and perks associated with Law Review. We will be doing this panel style for students to have any questions they might have answered. We will have the Editor-in-Chief, Managing Editor, as well as other E-board members answering those questions. We will also give a presentation about the role of each member, and explain exactly what it is that Law Review does, as well as explaining the write-on competition and process. Having new members is essential to the on-goings of Law Review, so this meeting is to attract members to join Law Review.
