Purpose of funds: Preparing for a Criminal Justice Summer Internship

On April 10, the Association for Criminal Justice will be leading an event for students who plan to enter a criminal justice internship during the summer. The event will focus on practical tips for excelling in an internship within criminal law. This will be done through discussing common motions, research tools, basic Florida criminal law standards, and answering any questions students may have. The discussion will be run by ACJ executive board members who have experience in the field and will include a powerpoint presentation.

Purpose of funds: A Discussion with the Joseph House

The Joseph House is a home and community for men released from prison. It is also commonly associated with the Equal Justice Institute, an organization dedicated to exonerating innocent people. The ACJ, SBA, and BLSA will be joining the Joseph House on April 3 for a discussion on the prison system, its impact on those who become incarcerated, and what it is like to re-enter society afterward. By attending this event, students will receive valuable insight into the US Prison system and its impacts. Students will also have the opportunity to ask questions at the end of the event that they may have.

Purpose of funds: Criminal Justice in the Military with Judge Advocate General Timothy Riley

Command Judge Advocate General, Timothy Riley, will be joining the ACJ and Student Veterans Law Symposium on April 5 during the lunch hour to discuss how criminal law differs in the Military legal system. Mr. Riley is a current FSU Law adjunct professor who teaches military law and is a member of Florida's National Guard. Students who attend will have the opportunity to ask questions at the end of the event. The event is scheduled for the lunch hour, and Mr. Riley will also be presenting a powerpoint on the topic during the discussion.
