Purpose of funds: Exam Writing Workshop

Phi Alpha Delta is working with Public Interest Law Student Association, Black Law Student Association, and the academic fellows program to offer a workshop to students that will teach them study skills and essay tips and tricks to use when studying for and taking their final exams. Our panel will be there to go over practice exam questions and essay answers to help familiarize students with common principles found in the core classes. Additionally, students in attendance will be able to ask general questions about the best essay writing techniques and study skills to use when preparing for law school exams.
