Purpose of funds: Hispanics in Law

Hispanics in Law will be a panel discussion with a variety of Hispanic Lawyers in the legal field. There will be lawyers from big law, the public sector, private practice, etc. The goal of the event is to allow FSU Law students the ability to learn and interact with professionals. This event will benefit Hispanic Students because many are first-generation law students and need opportunities to network and learn from Hispanic legal professionals. The panel will be an open discussion which means students will have the opportunity to ask crucial questions that can help lead them to the proper career path.
