As 2L representatives, Tah'jai and I really want to make sure we preserve the class spirit that we had last year as 1Ls. Events like the section showdown and end of the year dinner at Madison Social really left their mark as a fun time for the class of 2024 and this game night will serve as our first step in preserving this connection we have forged over the last year or so. It can be really easy to find yourself alone at the school and it is our hope that small events like this will draw in students because it will not take a whole lot of time away from readings, but still provide a nice break to the class of 2024.

Purpose of funds: Barrister's Bowl

Barrister's Bowl, also known as the Powderpuff game, is a fun tradition that showcases school spirit. The UF and FSU alums have a friendly rivalry on campus and this event is a fun outlet for those students to express this in a constructive way. Team membership is not limited to those who attended FSU and UF, but those are the mascots for our teams because The Liti-Gators and SBA often work together on this event. This is another example of what I like to call "lightnetworking" at the law school as students are interacting with each other across sections, grades, and degree paths. This event will provide pizza and drinks for all attendees and will be promoted through all forms of media: student announcements, Instagram (@FSUSBA) and the various class groupmes. This is a traditional event at the law school and brings together the fun student community that was a large factor in many people's decisions in choosing FSU law.

This event serves both of SVLS's dual purposes. The student body can get to know our veterans- one of our missions is to integrate student veterans into civilian society. The second purpose is helping future JAGs understand the culture of each branch and being able to choose which branch culture fits them best so that they can make an informed decision for their future careers.

This will also serve as a Q&A forum where interested students can ask about the demands, responsibilities, and benefits that come with being on the Trial Team. The Trial Team expects this informal meeting to garner interest into future Trial Team events and encourage current members to engage with non-Trial Team peers.
