Organizations receive funds for the particular conference of event, any funds not spent will be swept back to the funding council and eventually to COGS at the end of the fiscal year. COGS approval is required for all expenditures, and funds are only granted to organizations who follow policies outlined in the SGA/COGS Financial Manual, COGS Code, and SGA Statutes.

Meeting Minutes

(please include a breakdown of the funding request, costs, and what allocated funds are being allocated for. Should also include the vote for each request).

The Medical School Council (MSC) reserves the right to sweep any funds back to us.

If an organization wishes to use the funds for a reason other than the one they described at the meeting, they must get approval from MSC.

Questions:

- What are the funds for?
 - OIG would like to have Dr. Whitney Whitfield as a speaker for a lunch and learn on December 9th, from 12 Noon to 12:50. Dr. Whitfield is a recent FSU COM graduate and local ophthalmologist in Tallahassee. Dr. Whitfield can share her insights of working in the field of ophthalmology, memorable experiences she has had with patients, explain her daily schedule and what a typical day looks like, and provide tips for any students who plan on pursuing ophthalmology as a potential career choice. Her more recent experience with entering the field may be more relevant than most ophthalmologists you may encounter and will hopefully provide valuable insight for the students.

Questions:

- What are the funds for?
 - Grief can be an overwhelming sadness for people. They may find themselves numb and apathetic, unable to live their normal life while grieving. There are different causes and experiences of grief, as well as different lengths of time people may be grieving. The purpose of this event with Dr. Sally Karioth will be to discuss grief. This will include how grief can present, processing grief, particularly the processing grief related to the loss of a loved one, as well as addressing related concerns such as suicidal ideation. This event will include a presentation by Dr. Karioth to be followed by a Q&A session.

Questions:

- What are the funds for?
 - Homelessness is a prevalent problem in the Tallahassee community. There is a constant need from the homeless shelter for socks for their residents. The purpose of this event will be to raise awareness for the homeless population and provide resources for how to get involved. During this event, students will be able to bring sock and/or blanket donations which will be given to the Kearney Center following the event. The Coffee Food Truck, Frother's Daughter, will be set up in the front of the COM so students can get a coffee during the event.

Questions:

- What are the funds for?
 - When you start managing your finances, you'll have a better perspective of where and how you're spending your money. This can help you keep within your budget, and even increase your savings. With good personal finance management, you'll also learn to control your money so you can achieve your financial goals. This is a crucial step in building wealth for future healthcare workers, and young professionals alike. We need to be involved and engaged with our personal finances. As members of STEM we often neglect the importance and management of such principles. In this day and age, it is imperative for physicians to be knowledgeable about business and finance, in addition to the science of medicine. Business in Medicine (BAM) is meant to help students become more knowledgeable about the business of medicine and will help prepare future clinicians to better navigate the field of modern healthcare. In addition, BAM aims to teach ways for physicians to intelligently manage their own money and medical school loans.

Questions:

- What are the funds for?
 - During this event there will be food and drinks provided for lunch before the football game. It will provide an opportunity for faculty and students to come together and celebrate FSU together. There will be sandwiches, chicken nuggets and drinks for the lunch. There will also be vegetarian options, as well as condiments. We will set up a tent to provide shade, as well as a speaker to play music. We will also have coolers with ice to keep drinks and food cold. Additionally, there will be games such as cornhole and football to play during the event. After the event, we plan to go as a group to the game to enjoy FSU football.

Questions:

- What are the funds for?
 - The Christian Medical Association is excited to have Dr. Matthew Standridge this Tuesday to speak about his experience as a Christian physician, involvement with the underserved communities, and share some stories and advice, with a Q/A after! Dr. Standridge has had a varied and exciting career in Family Medicine. Starting out he worked as a full spectrum Family Physician in the mountains of North Carolina, including obstetrics and running a mobile medical clinic for local migrant agricultural workers. Seeking a diversity of experience, he then went on to work at a faith based FQHC in inner-city Chicago for a year. The combination of a growing family, the promise of warmer weather and a wife from North Florida eventually enticed the Standridge family to settle in Tallahassee in 2011. Dr. Standridge initially joined TMH Physician Partners at their Wakulla office, a certified Rural Health Center, and after 6 years took over as the Medical Director of the Southwood Physician Partners location in Tallahassee. Throughout his career he served as a mentor for medical students and was awarded the Mission Model Award by the Florida State College of Medicine Tallahassee campus in 2017. Having long considered a career in academics he joined the faculty at the TMH Family Medicine Residency in 2022. He is excited to train the next generation of Family Physicians and to equip them to be leaders in their communities.

Questions:

- What are the funds for?
 - Dr. Doug Murphy is the former Florida Medical Association President. He will be speaking to us on how to navigate complicated situations in healthcare when politics are involved. The son of a physician and a chemist, Murphy earned his medical degree from the University of South Florida College of Medicine, then completed residency training in obstetrics and gynecology at the Medical University of South Carolina in 1984. He is a board certified obstetrician- gynecologist who opened his own practice in Ocala, Florida and has many years of experience advocating for patients and policy change in the state of Florida.

Questions:

- What are the funds for?
 - The Biomedical Sciences Graduate Student Association would like to host a Fall Festival at the College of Medicine to celebrate the closing of the semester and the completion and preparation for exams. Food and beverages will be provided by Mission's BBQ. We plan to rent a bounce house and inflatables to attract a large number of attendees. The purpose of this event is to allow Florida State students, faculty, and staff to come together at a social event to congregate and relax prior to holiday breaks and exams. This event is available for all FSU students, faculty, and staff across the university.
