 - Interprofessional day will be held to celebrate the various health professions, promote collaboration and allow students to interact with various health professions. There will be multiple tables set up with a different health profession at each. We plan to have animal therapy, music therapy, respiratory therapy, physical therapy, occupational therapy, pharmacist, MD, PA, and RN tables that students will be asked to visit and talk with. This will allow students to gain knowledge about the roles of these professions in patient care and how they may incorporate this into their future careers to best advocate for their patients. After visiting each of the tables, students will be given an IPA t-shirt to promote interprofessional practice and team based care.

 - The purpose of the Nutrition, Exercise, and Wellness Organization (NEW) is to educate our students at the Florida State University College of Medicine about the nutrition, exercise and wellness aspects of working in the medical field in the 21st century. We strive to encourage our students to live healthy lifestyles and will attempt to provide them with reliable information regarding nutrition, exercise and wellness that they can incorporate into his or her own life. NEW members will attempt to act as role models and leaders of living a healthy lifestyle in the community and the student body. Our organization will enhance the educational experience by engaging participants with guest speakers on selected topics, service projects, informative newsletters, structured exercise opportunities and networking events. Nutrition, Exercise, and Wellness RSO at FSU College of Medicine would like to host a yoga event for the student body to participate in. We are hosting Dr. Caulley Soto who is a certified Yoga instructor and a Pediatrician. The class will be hosted in the College of Medicine Courtyard.

Questions:

 - University of Florida OBGYN Residents will be doing an event with the COM students to talk about their responsibilities as OBGYN residents, what their day-to-day looks like, advice on getting accepted, and answering questions that students may have about the resident's experience. This will benefit the students in the COM to learn more about what it's like to be a resident and help them learn more about a potential field they may want to go into. This could also be a networking tool for students in the COM to connect to residents.

 - LMSA will be teaming up with Corazon Dancers, a culturally diverse group of students who share Latin dance as a common interest if not passion. They teach Latin dances on campus as well as throughout Tallahassee. They will be teaching students how to salsa dance while students can also enjoy some appetizers from El Rincon Latino. This event will be a good opportunity for students to relax and hang out with their classmates, while also learning more about Hispanic culture. This is our first Salsa Night event since COVID-19 and we are hoping students will be as excited as us to bring back this tradition to FSUCOM.
