Questions:

- What are the funds for?
 - The PA students have a large volume of tests and mandatory attendance. This event is to serve as a group study social where the PA students can eat food and share study resources. Hoping to foster collaboration between students and ease some of the stress surrounding the busy exam schedule. We are hoping to maybe get the service dog Bugsy approved for this day also. We will be having Jimmy John's for lunch that meets individuals dietary restrictions so all students can participate in the event.
