Bill 29 – Senator Paul, Isaac, Wright

$2000 From Senate Projects to NAACP Travel Expense to help pay for transportation to March For Our Lives in Washington D.C.

The organization will be taking applications in order to determine who can go on the trip, requiring all interested parties to send a 250-500 word letter to a legislator.

Chair Dawkins: What all is the $2000 going towards?

A: To help reduce the cost for students to attend the rally. It won't fully cover any of the students' travel expenses, but it will reduce costs on students.

Vice-Chair Jackson: How many students are you hoping to take on the trip?

A: 56 people. The quote provided, however, is for 32 people which was the cheapest quote.

Yay: Chair Dawkins, Senator Paul, Senator Knight-Baker, Senator Glanton, Senator Hudson, Vice-Chair Jackson
