

I hope everyone is having a smooth transition into the Spring Semester and are as excited as I am about the upcoming months. The Election Calendar has been posted online at <http://sga.fsu.edu/election> for the general SGA Elections and the BSU Elections. All up to date information regarding calendars, deadlines, and processes can be found on the Elections website.

Last fall, a number of changes were made the SGA Election Code. Please see below for details and remember, it is your responsibility to be aware of these changes and know the rules.

- The updated Election Code goes into effect the last senate meeting of the semester
- Violations
- Definition of Campaigning,
- Spring Debate must take place during campaigning
- Duties of the Supervisor and Deputy Supervisor of Elections.
- The Election shall take place the 7th week of the fall/spring semester

If you are creating a new political party, keep in mind that you must be fully approved as an RSO through Student Activities PRIOR to declaring candidacy with the Office of Elections.

If you have any questions, feel free to reach out. My door is always open (literally), so stop on by! My office hours are located online and are posted outside my room. I am looking forward to the Elections and I can't wait to make this season the best one yet!

Alexis Shepard
Supervisor of Elections
Elections Commission Chair
The Florida State University