Closing Announcements: Senate President Forst said to please ask him before you try to unlock the Calendar. Senator Anger said the Street Team will meet tomorrow at 7 p.m. in 311 Union. Senator K. Anderson said that the committee will meet tomorrow at 8:30 a.m. to discuss graduate student fees, in Resolution 19, that was discussed and passed by the Senate. Senator Ayers said that PCC is Student Government Council. He announced that they are having Spring
Fling, where they will have smoothies and Bon Fire, among other activities. Danielle Acosta advised the Senate to go to their committee meetings, do your school work, read your statues, Rules of Procedure and Guide Book, and come and see her in the SGA offices. She has a couch, candy and toys. Doug Roberts, Senate Parliamentarian advised the Senate to read Rules 5 and 6 concerning committee election and description of committees. Sgt at Arms told the Senate that there is no cell phone use at Senate and lap tops should be closed during Student Comments. Senate Pro Tempore Derrick Scott said: “it’s not who you know, but who knows you.” He told the Senate to make sure they get each other phone numbers. Student Senate President Andrew Forst told the Senate that there are no political parties here and you are a representative of the students and the college/school that you are enrolled. He told the Senate the following: the guide books are updated; new Senators need to be financially certified to be able to vote on legislation; the Legislative Agenda are goals that Senate wants; the goals of the Senate are on the white board in the Senate office; legislation is due at 12 Noon on Tuesdays; and Legislative Aids job description is very vague and ambiguous so see him if you are unsure of what your aid could do.

The meeting adjourned at 10 p.m.
