She said that the soldiers allows us to be free and sit in these chambers. Senator Spencer asked the Senate to please read Bill 64, that will allow COGS to keep their sweepings. Dr. Howard told the Senate that she has the information on getting a LCD in the Senate Chambers and if anyone is interested in getting this information to get the project started to please see her. Sandra Miles gave a quote: “there is nothing wrong being a Ph.D. student who read books.” Senate Pro Tempore Chance told the Senate that she is sending them an e-mail where they can put their e-mail addresses online and if anyone does not want their information online to please let her know. She explained to the Senate the reason she was on her laptop during Senate is that she had an assignment that was due at 10 p.m. Senate President Cuyler told the Senate that they have almost completed their goals and the only goal remaining is the lighting of Landis Green and someone needs to get on that. He told the Senate that he and Senate Pro Tempore Chance had just discussed getting something for the Chambers and getting a LCD was one of their plans and Dr. Howard must be psychic because she was thinking the same thing. Cuyler asked the Senate to make sure they read their bills for next week. He reminded them that the last date to put a bill on First Reading for funds is June 2.

The meeting adjourned at 10:15 p.m
