Messages from the Executive Branch:

- President Levin: Thanked everyone for coming out to speak, we are listening – not just hearing – but listening. We are committed to not just statements, but action – that includes the action we have been doing and VP Janvier has been leading on campus in the City of Tallahassee. We have a direct line to the administration and we are working closely to move things forward. Our goal is to unite the student body, and to leave our community better than we found it.
- Vice President Janvier: Thank you to everyone on this call. Draws on the energy of the survivors who spoke their truth in this space. VP Janvier encouraged folks to email to further dialogue, listen, and plan action – a collaborative effort to produce sustainable change.

Messages from Agency and Bureau Directors, SGA Organizations Officers and Employees:

- AASU: Hosting a variety of events this summer, including one this week on intergenerational trauma. Supporting the Innocence Project to support wrongly convicted felons. Check out AASU's social media for more information. Many students, including pillars of the Asian American community, are speaking tonight. Thank you for your courage, and please feel free to reach out to AASU, it is imperative to listen to survivors and create space, take the lead, and have the entire campus listen.
- WSU: Here to listen to those who are willing to share their stories and work within WSU for how to move forward. Looking forward to hearing from folks and creating change.
- Pride: Here to show support to survivors of power-based personal violence. Also come with anger and frustration about how the university has handled these issues. Pride social media or email are on the website to contact us and we support you all. We are here to do anything we can to fix this issue.
- VSU: We are hear listening to you, supporting you, and creating an ad hoc committee to further support this work.
- HLSU: HLSU stands with all survivors of sexual violence and will work to create safe spaces on campus, educate our members. Please reach out.
