

RSO Name: American Marketing Association

Mission: "To develop an organization that furthers the advancement of networking, knowledge, and hands-on practice pertaining to the marketing field, and to foster an environment that assists in developing students into respected professionals across multiple industries."

Active Members: 69

Dues: 25 per semester or 40 for the year

The Finances

Amount Fundraised: 1,200 (fundraised last year)

Amount set aside for trip:

Per person Cost:

The Request

Amount: $2,250

Categories:

- Registration— $215 per person → $1,935 in total
- Lodging— N/A
- Rental - $157.50 per car, → $315
  - (169.31 per car)

The Trip

Name: 2018 AMA International Collegiate Conference

Date: Begin: April 4th, 2018

Return: April 8th, 2018

Purpose: First off there is an exclusive career fair at the conference. These employers want to hire AMA members and provide the student body with a chance for potential career opportunities after they graduate. The conference also provides a chance to earn certifications and win competitions that distinguish individual students from the job market and Florida State from other colleges. There is also tons of guest speakers and networking opportunities for students to connect with professionals from across the country.

Number of Students attending: 20

Miscellaneous

- Beginning of year, raised price for chapter dues and have had 2 fundraisers, 4 sponsorships
- Requesting funding only for 9 people (2 people have already attended the trip), these are the people who met requirement for early-bird special

RTAC's Decision

- RTAC has decided to fund the American Marketing Association $1,505 for the registration for the 7 students who have not yet gone on the trip.

RSO Name: The Trumpet Guild of Florida State

Mission:

Unite trumpet players and enthusiasts for continued development of musical and educational growth.

Promote and encourage interest and study of trumpet on our campus and in the community.

Active Members: 27

Dues: $15 per person

The Finances

Amount Fundraised:

Amount set aside for trip:

Per person Cost: $121.20

The Request

Amount: $1,774.30

Categories:

- Registration— $40 per person X 15 people = $600
- Lodging— $400 (estimated, quotes not provided), 4 rooms at $100
- Gas— $774.30

The Trip

Name: National Trumpet Competition

Date: Begin: March 6

Return: March 11

Purpose: This trip benefits the FSU student body by giving a national level of exposure to trumpet players from FSU. Sixteen trumpet students have been selected from our university to compete against trumpet players from all over the country, including those from many different colleges of music, schools of music, and conservatories. Because of past success and achievements of FSU students at the National Trumpet Competition, prospective students, both undergraduate and graduate, have come to audition at the FSU College of Music.

Number of Students attending: 16

Miscellaneous

- 1 graduate student included
- 7-8 students have been on this trip before

RTAC's Decision

- RTAC has decided to fund The Trumpet Guild at Florida State $1374.30, the full amount of the request minus the hotel, due to lack of quotes provided.

RSO Name: NolePAC

Mission: NolePAC shall serve to advocate for issues concerning the pro-Israel community at Florida State University. NolePAC will use its resources to help strengthen the U.S.-Israel relationship through advocacy on FSU's campus and in every way we can.

Active Members: 115

Dues: No dues

The Finances

Amount Fundraised: 1500 (current)

Amount set aside for trip: Candidates are willing to pay $60 per individual

Per person Cost: 1000

The Request

Amount: $15,000

Categories:

- Registration— 11,960
- Lodging— 5,570.74 (6 rooms for 3 nights, including tax)
- Flights— 14,400

The Trip

Name: AIPAC Policy Conference

Date: Begin: March 3

Return: March 6

Purpose: This trip exposes them to the nation's top political leaders and provides an opportunity to have a better understanding and develop a truly in depth knowledge of middle eastern politics and policies. Additionally, there are opportunities to engage and network in the entrepreneurship field with business leaders from national and international markets. This trip truly provides a global experience unlike any other.

Number of Students attending: 40

- 3 are graduates
- 12 -13 students have attended this trip already

Miscellaneous

- Bipartisan organization
- Received prestigious award last year for FSU – Duke Redman award
- Fundraising talking to donors, etc.

RTAC's Decision

- RTAC has decided to fund NolePAC $2,700. This amount includes $150 per room (the maximum RTAC can pay for each hotel room, excluding any tax) at 3 nights for 6 rooms.

RSO Name: FSU Belly Dancers

Mission: The mission of the FSU Belly Dancers is to promote cultural awareness, self-esteem, and good health through the art of belly dance

Active Members: 9

Dues: No

The Finances

Amount Fundraised: None

Amount set aside for trip: None

Per person Cost: $45

The Request

Amount: $405

Categories:

- Registration— $45 x 9
- Lodging—
- Gas—

The Trip

Name: Oriental Skills Workshop

Date: Begin: 3/31/18

Return: 3/31/18

Purpose: The skills the troupe will obtain at the workshop will allow them to improve their repertoire which they will then pass along to the FSU student body through our free weekly classes and workshops.

Number of Students attending: 9

RTAC's Decision

- RTAC has decided to fund the FSU Belly Dancers the full $405 of registration costs for the workshop.