Resource for Travel Allocations Committee
October 5th, 2022

Call to Order: 10:30am

Members Present: Chair Rider, Members Carolina Sena, Sabrina Polynice, Chair Bettley

Members Tardy: none

Members Absent: none

Guests: RSO representatives, Chair Diaz

Opening Remarks:

- Chair
 - Land Acknowledgement:
 - The Student Government of Florida State University acknowledges that it is located on land that is the ancestral and traditional territory of the Apalachee Nation, the Miccosukee Tribe of Florida, the Muscogee Creek Nation, and the Seminole Tribe of Florida. We pay respect to their Elders past and present and extend that respect to their descendants and to all Indigenous people. We recognize this land remains scarred by the histories and ongoing legacies of settler colonial violence, dispossession, and removal. In spite of all this, and with tremendous resilience, these Indigenous Nations have remained deeply connected to this territory, to their families, to their communities, and to their cultural ways of life. We recognize the ongoing relationships of care that these Indigenous Nations maintain with this land and extend our gratitude as we live and work as humble and respectful guests upon their territory. We encourage all to learn about and educate others on the contemporary work of the Indigenous Nations whose land we are on and to endeavor to support Indigenous sovereignty in all the ways that we can.

- RSO Presentation:
 - The FSU Student Chapter FRPA is a campus-wide organization of future Public Relations professionals. FPRA has meetings, events, and workshops every other week where speakers discuss PR niches, industries and companies. These speakers give our members insights into the professional world of communications, with tips and tricks on how to be the best PR pro. FPRA members also get the chance to attend a networking trip in the fall and spring.
 - This trip benefits the reputation of Florida State University by allowing students to meet professionals and represent themselves as well as the student body in a positive and honorable way. This will also raise FSU's post-graduation job rate because students will get to network with companies that are looking to hire.

 - There are many benefits that this trip provides the FSU student body with the first being a career fair comprised of industry leading companies. Our students would be able to network and build 1 on 1 connections with recruiters abnd experts in their fields. The conference will also have over a dozebn different workshops in which will give our members a valuable opportunity to learn more about their perspective career paths while being able to open up more opportunities for them. We believe that offering this opportunity for FSU students to attend this conference will help promote FSU as it will also be an opportunity for our students to display their achievement and skills.
