Statute Number(s): Chapter 206 Anti-Discrimination Policy

No Student Government Association officer, employee, branch, agency, affiliated project, recognized student organization, or any entity which receives any Student Government Association funding will practice discrimination. Discrimination will be defined as the differential treatment of a student based on, but not limited to race, creed, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, national origin, marital status, parental status, disability, socio-economic status, inability to pay dues, political orientation, class standing (freshman, sophomore, etc., unless allowed by Statute) or any combination thereof. Student Government Officers shall not be penalized if they choose to observe a Holy Day. As per Florida Statutes, anti-Semitism and any other form of religious discrimination shall be considered when a grievance regarding religion is submitted. Discrimination will be further defined as the denial of due process or the infringement of the substantive rights of any student guaranteed by the Florida State University Student Government Association Constitution and Statutes, or organization bylaws, University Rights and Responsibilities, and State and Federal Constitutions.
