

Senate Resolution

71st Student Senate

Senate Resolution #: 20

Sponsored by: Murcia

Whereas: The student population does not know what the Student Government Association (SGA) does, stands for, and how to get involved or have their voices, and,

Whereas: It is the job and responsibility of SGA to educate and reach out to students so that they know how to access and join different entities of SGA, and,

Whereas: As senators, a point should be made to provide information to current students and new students, and,

Whereas: Senators should be present at orientation once more to inform incoming students and be a liaison between the new students and SGA entities, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Seventy-first Student Senate the Florida State University that: The Student Senate will actively attempt to be at every Orientation to create a more welcoming, informational, and transparent environment for new students to inspire more involvement and help diversify the ideas put forth in the Student Government Association.
