Counting of Ballots - Vote Tabulation

- A. The method of counting shall be done electronically.
- B. The Supervisor of Elections shall announce the complete “unofficial” results on the night of elections in the Senate Chamber during the Special Introductions portion of the Senate Calendar if the election is held on a day during which there is a regularly scheduled Senate meeting. If there is no regularly scheduled Senate meeting the results shall be announced in the Senate Chambers upon completion of tabulation.
  1. In the event of an extended election as a result of an electronic failure, the Student Senate President may call a special Senate meeting the day of the extended election.
- C. The Supervisor of Elections shall permit observers to be present during the entire vote tabulation upon request, although the Supervisor of Elections shall have the power to remove any observer for disruptive or unprofessional behavior.
