F. A Complete Final Expense Statement will be defined as a Final Expense Statement that includes every point listed in Student Body Statutes 710.2 B or the provisions as outlined in 710.3 E. (1). A Complete Final Expense Statement will be defined as a Final Expense Statement if it, and is free of any false statements, a complete and accurate campaign contribution list, and all receipts are legible and can be understood by the Office of Elections.

G. An Incomplete Final Expense Statement will be defined as inconsistent, or not including every point listed in Student Body Statutes 710.3 B (1) through 710.3 B (6). An Incomplete Final Expense Statement is defined as a statement that is missing receipts for expenses, having an incomplete campaign contribution statement, or contains receipts that are illegible or unintelligible. Failure to submit a complete Final Expense Statement by 12 p.m. the Friday following the elections, will be considered incomplete. Failure to submit a verifiably complete final expense statement by 12 p.m. the Friday following the election will constitute a Schedule I Violation, consistent with 711.6 B11. The Supervisor of Elections must notify by email and publicly post online whether the final expense statement is complete or incomplete by 5 p.m. Friday.

I. Fraudulent Final Expense Statement is defined as a statement that is intentionally misleading which includes false payment forms and receipts, as well as intentionally lying about the usage of donations, party dues, and/or other party or individual funds. Fraudulent Final Expense Statements also include the mislabeling of where donations originate.
