Date: 10/18/2022

Whereas: Florida State University Sustainable Campus defines sustainability as “encompassing human and ecological health, social justice, and secure livelihoods for all generations. Sustainability is about working collaboratively to create a world where everyone can thrive”,

Whereas: There are many simple techniques individuals and organizations can adopt to work towards being more sustainable,

Whereas: Florida State University has over 650 Recognized Student Organizations on campus,

Whereas: Recognized Student Organizations host a multitude of events all around campus each week that have the potential to utilize more sustainable techniques,

Whereas: Recognized Student Organizations are encouraged to work with members to be as accommodating as possible by choosing a meeting location that is as close to them as possible to maximize travel on foot and minimize travel by car, Generally make info and updates about your RSO available online or on social media to minimize print, when buying things be mindful of the amount of plastic packaging something comes in, and favor products with less plastic packaging,

Whereas: Recognized Student Organizations are also encouraged to use existing resources for new events, make giveaway items reusable items, employ special event recycling, and recommend sustainable vendors for event materials,

Whereas: The student senate acknowledges the large impact Recognized Student organizations have on our campus, therefore

Be it resolved by the Seventy-fourth Student Senate at Florida State University that: The Senate encourages RSO's to adopt and incorporate sustainability guidelines and techniques aforementioned in this resolution,

Be it further resolved that: RSO's look to the work of Florida State University Sustainable campus for information on even more sustainable techniques and ways they can get involved with making campus greener,

Be it further resolved that: A copy of this resolution be sent to the following:
Nimna Gabadage, Student Body President
Kenley Adams, Student Body Vice President
