Whereas: Hydration is essential for the physical and cognitive well-being of students, and

Whereas: Florida State University (FSU) promotes a holistic approach to student health, wellbeing, and sustainability, and

Whereas: The Student Union and 1851 are central hubs of student activity, hosting numerous students daily, and

Whereas: Currently, students may face barriers in accessing free drinking water, leading them to purchase bottled beverages, which not only imposes financial burdens but also adds to environmental concerns, therefore

Be it resolved by the Seventy-fifth Student Senate at Florida State University that: The Student Union and 1851 are urged to provide free water cups to all students upon request. By doing so, FSU can further its commitment to student health by ensuring that hydration is easily accessible, while also promoting sustainable practices by reducing the need for bottled water purchases. The provision of free water cups will serve as an example of FSU's commitment to both student welfare and environmental sustainability, setting a standard for other campus facilities, and
