Additions to Chapter 802 General Guidelines & Restrictions on Expenditures

802.3 A. SGA shall not fund any item pertaining to an event or travel in the past, including, but not limited to: clothing and awards, promotional items. The selection process for any awards paid for by A&S money must occur after the initial request presentation, and the recipient must be notified their award was paid for by SGA.

802.4 D. Events should be held on campus if appropriate accommodations on campus are available. Agencies, bureaus and affiliated projects and SGA offices must have off-campus events approved via a resolution of the Senate. Undergraduate RSOs must have a majority vote of approval by the Programming Allocation Committee, or in the event that PAC does not meet, the Senate. Graduate RSOs must have approval as outlined in the COGS Code.

802.5 D. Student Groups affiliated with political parties or supporting/advocating a national, state or local political agenda may request money from student government for awareness of their RSO on campus, RSO events, spreading messages, ideologies of their RSO on campus, and travel to advance their RSO mission at Florida State. A&S fee's shall not be used to: endorse a political candidate on or off campus or advance a political message off-campus.

E. Religious based student groups may receive funding for awareness/advertising of their RSO on Campus, RSO events, travel to advance their mission at Florida State; funding for proselytizing on campus is prohibited. Religious based organizations providing service are exempt from being registered as a service organization. Religious groups can request money for service projects or service travel, but must not proselytize their religion. Religious topics or lectures may be offered during travel or events, however, if requested by a participant, an alternate activity must be arranged.

Additions to Chapter 807 Recognized Student Organizations Fund Distribution Committees

807.4 E. Both Committees shall have a Student Senate liaison. The Senator serving as Chairperson shall also assume the responsibility of the Primary Student Senate Liaison. The primary responsibility of the Student Senate Liaison will be to author and sponsor any Resolutions, which are in relation to their assigned committee and need to be approved by Senate. The Senate President may appoint additional secondary liaisons to PAC and RTAC; these liaisons may serve in an advisory capacity to the committees.

Addition of Chapter 812 iClicker Equipment

812 Senate iClicker Equipment

A. Each senate seat shall be assigned an iClicker for voting by the Senate President or Senate Pro-Tempore. It shall be the responsibility of each senator to check-out and check-in their iClicker at each senate meeting. Failure to return or report a lost/stolen iClicker within (1) week of check out will violate the finance code and be considered theft, unless other arrangements to return are made in writing via email to the Senate President, Pro-tempore and Senate Program Assistant. Damaged/malfunctioning iClickers shall be returned to the senate president or Pro-Tempore, or this rule will apply.

B. Penalties:

1. The senator shall lose their voting privileges until the iClicker is returned or replaced.
2. It shall be the responsibility of the senator to reimburse SGA for the cost of the iClicker or replace the iClicker with a comparable and compatible device.
3. Failure to report a loss and/or return a device and compensate SGA will result in a FSU police report filed against you. Student Rights and Responsibilities alerted, Grades/Transcript held, and immediate suspension pending impeachment proceedings.
