Senate Resolution 16

Sponsored by: Senators Pimentel, Kreutzer, Spear, Bousbar, Billisi, and Theodore

WHEREAS, Florida State University prides itself in being a University renowned for welcoming students, faculty, and staff from all over the world, including those 7 countries barred by the United States' recent immigration ban by executive order.

WHEREAS, Florida State University is an equal opportunity employer and educational provider committed to a policy of non-discrimination for any member of the University's community on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veterans' status, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or any other legally protected group status.

WHEREAS, according to 8 U.S. Code § 1152: "No person shall receive any preference or priority or be discriminated against in the issuance of an immigrant visa because of the person's race, sex, nationality, place of birth, or place of residence."

WHEREAS, an estimated 17,000 international students in the U.S. are from the seven nations covered by the entry ban.

WHEREAS, currently, there are at least 60 FSU students who are affected by the executive order, one of whom is an FSU graduate student who had gone home to Iran and is currently stranded, as a direct result of this action

WHEREAS, Diversity and Inclusion have long been a part of the operating philosophy at the Florida State University. Here, valuing diversity means a workplace that respects and includes differences, recognizes the unique contributions that individuals with many types of differences can make, and creates a work environment that maximizes the potential of all employees and students.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SIXTY NINTH STUDENT SENATE AT THE FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY THAT,

We stand in solidarity with our fellow Seminoles and FSU community affected by the immigration ban and express deep concern for the consequences arising from this action.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT,

Florida State University continues to welcome the most talented individuals from all countries and nationalities to study, teach, and contribute to research and scholarship at our university.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT,

Florida State University stands against the institution of an immigration ban of any sort on basis of a peoples' race, creed, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veterans' status, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or any other legally protected group status.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT a copy of this resolution will be sent to the following:

John Thrasher, President of Florida State University

Steve Pattison, Chair, FSU Alumni Association National Board of Directors

Edward E. "Ed" Burr, Chair of the Florida State University Board of Trustees

Mary Coburn, Vice President of Student Affairs
