67th Student Senate
Resolution 28
Sponsored by: Senators K. Anderson & Doyle

WHEREAS: All enrolled students pay fees based upon credit hour enrollment,

WHEREAS: Graduate students are students who pay fees for every credit hour,

WHEREAS: Graduate Assistants are graduate students who receive tuition waivers and stipends in exchange for instructing undergraduate students or for performing research or other duties in their respective departments or colleges,

WHEREAS: Graduate students and graduate assistants in the thesis or dissertation stage take credit hours for classes that do not meet,

WHEREAS: Graduate assistants do not have the option of taking fewer than the set number of academic credits mandated by their department or college,

WHEREAS: A committee was formed to examine the structure and impact of fees on all students,

WHEREAS: Committee members were chosen based upon a spirit of representation of the entire student body,

WHEREAS: There was no representation of graduate students or graduate assistants in this committee,

WHEREAS: The committee's decision presented on April 15th was given without representation for graduate students and graduate assistants,

WHEREAS: The Student Senate expresses its displeasure that neither graduate students nor graduate assistants had representation on the committee,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE 67TH STUDENT SENATE THAT: the Student Senate recommends that a graduate-level student be appointed to the committee for the 2015-2016 academic year.
