6.04 Election of Standing Committee Chair and Vice-Chair

Elections shall occur immediately after the reading of committee assignments following fall and spring inaugurations, and upon the resignation, impeachment or departure of a sitting Chair and Vice Chair. Nominations for Committee Chair and Committee Vice-Chair shall be taken from the floor and shall require a second. Each candidate shall be allowed, in alphabetical order, to address the standing committee for no more than three (3) minutes in the form of a speech. The overseer of the nominations, speeches, pro-debates, and vote for the Chair position of each of the standing committees shall be one of the following: SGA Director, SGA Associate Director, SGA Administration Senate Program Assistant, Senate President, or Senate Pro Tempore. In the event that one or more of these overseers are absent, the following shall be the order of succession: Chair of PAC, Chair of RTAC, Senate Parliamentarian, Senate Clerk, Sergeant-at-Arms, a Senator who has not previously resided on the standing committee they are overseeing. The overseer shall allow no more than two committee members to speak in pro during debate. Each pro-debate shall last no longer than two (2) minutes. No con-debate shall be permitted during the election process. All nominees not addressing the standing committee shall be requested to leave the immediate area when not speaking, including during all debate on the candidates. All members of the standing committee including the nominees will vote with a secret ballot for the Chair. Each committee member including the candidates for Chair shall cast their vote by writing the name of his or her desired candidate upon a piece of paper and turning it in to the overseer. The overseer will count the secret ballots to determine a majority (50% + 1) vote and declare who the Chair is. The vote count shall not be announced. At this point, the overseer's role in the election is completed. The Chair now conducts the election for Vice-Chair. The process for the nominations, speeches, and pro-debates for the vice Chair shall be the same as that for Chair. The Chair shall cast a vote in the event of a tie.

1. A chair or vice-chair may be removed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the committee they serve on; only those who have served on the committee for minimum of one (1) calendar month shall be eligible to vote on this motion. At least five (5) committee members eligible to vote on the matter must be present to vote.
