Whereas: The month of June is nationally recognized as Pride Month to commemorate the Stonewall Riots in 1969 and to celebrate Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer/Questioning (LGBTQIA+) individuals, and

Whereas: On June 6th, 2023, the Human Rights Campaign officially declared a state of emergency for LGBTQ+ individuals in the United States following what it deems an unprecedented and dangerous spike in anti-LGBTQIA+ legislation, and

Whereas: The Human Rights Campaign notes that 2023 has been a record-breaking year for anti-LGBTQIA+ legislation, as over 525 anti-LGBTQIA+ bills were introduced in 41 states, with 76 of those being signed into law as of June 5th, 2023, and

Whereas: The organization furthers that as of May 2023, the Florida legislature has passed six laws deemed anti-LGBTQIA+, more than the last seven years combined, and

Whereas: With the growing number of anti-LGBTQIA+ laws, students across the country have expressed that they feel unsafe and unrepresented in schools through petition, protest, and other avenues, and

Whereas: The Pride Student Union, located on the third floor of the FSU Student Union, stands to advocate for LGBTQIA+ rights on campus, and has expressed the worry of LGBTQIA+ people at FSU and their ability to stay safe on campus, therefore

Be it resolved by the Seventy-fifth Student Senate at Florida State University that: The Student Senate condemns these legislative attacks against LGBTQIA+ individuals across the United States, acknowledging their impact on members of our own University's student body, and

Be it further resolved that: The Student Senate stands in support of Florida State University's LGBTQIA+ students as well as members of the community across the country who feel the impacts of this wave of legislation, and

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Be it further resolved that: This body encourages Florida State University to speak out against all types of identity-based discrimination, and to promote its resources available for the LGBTQIA+ community, including the Pride Student Union, a University entity whose mission statement is “to advocate for, empower, and provide community spaces for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer people within both the FSU and Tallahassee communities,” and

Whereas: the Fourth of July, also known as Independence Day, is a significant and cherished national holiday in the United States, commemorating the Declaration of Independence on July 4th, 1776; and WHEREAS, the Fourth of July holds deep historical and cultural importance for Americans, symbolizing the birth of the United States as an independent nation, founded upon the principles of liberty, democracy, and equal rights for all; and

Whereas: the Fourth of July is a time for citizens across the country to come together in celebration, fostering a sense of unity and pride in our shared heritage as Americans; and

Whereas: the Fourth of July provides an opportunity for reflection on the sacrifices made by our forefathers, who fought valiantly for our freedom and laid the foundation for the democratic principles that we hold dear; and

Whereas: Florida State University (FSU) values and embraces diversity, promoting an inclusive environment that encourages cultural understanding and appreciation; and

Whereas: the Student Senate recognizes the importance of commemorating and celebrating significant national events to foster a sense of belonging and camaraderie among its students, faculty, and staff; and

Whereas: the Student Senate seeks to promote a spirit of patriotism, civic engagement, and historical consciousness among the student body; now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Seventy-fifth Student Senate at Florida State University that: we celebrate and recognize America's Independence Day on July 4th, 2023, with great enthusiasm and pride; and

Be it further resolved that: that the Seventy-fifth Student Senate encourages all members of the FSU community to observe and honor Independence Day, whether through participation in local parades, fireworks display, community events, or personal reflection on the significance of this historical milestone; and

Be it further resolved that: that the Seventy-fifth Student Senate encourages student organizations, campus departments, and residence halls to organize educational activities, cultural events, or discussions that explore the history, values, and impact of the Declaration of Independence and the subsequent establishment of the United States of America; and

Be it further resolved that: that the Seventy-fifth Student Senate calls upon the university administration to support and promote these activities and events, ensuring their accessibility and encouraging wide participation from the Florida State University community; and

Be it further resolved that: that the Seventy-fifth Student Senate urges the Florida State University community to approach Independence Day as an opportunity to reflect on our shared responsibility in upholding the principles of liberty, justice, and equality that define the United States, and to actively engage in conversations about how we can continue working towards a more inclusive and equitable society.

Be it lastly resolved that: A copy of this resolution be sent to:
