Res 47

Whereas: The Florida State University is currently searching for its next President;

Whereas: Finding a leader for our University is of paramount importance and urgency;

Whereas: The students are excited about the future of our university and are excited to learn more about the candidates whom the Presidential Search Advisory Committee will interview and consider;

Whereas: Student forums will be held during the on-campus visits of candidates;

Be it resolved by the 66th Student Senate: The student forums held for the candidates, while they are visiting FSU, be held at the time most beneficial to the greatest amount of students, preferably after in the later afternoon or early evening;

Be it further resolved: These forums be well advertised to the student body by the university, including social media flyers and a mass email to all students;

Be it further resolved: The Senate asks for the concerns of the students be heard by the Board of Trustees and the Presidential Search Advisory Committee;
