- Bill 4: Allocation to Art Therapy Association
The organization explains that they are requesting funds for their annual spring workshop. The invited guest speaker is Cathy Moon, professor of Art Therapy at the School of Art Institute of Chicago. The workshop will be conducted on Saturday, February 23, 2019 and will include a hands on art experiential. All students are welcome to attend. Light breakfast and lunch will be served. Representatives inquire the reason for serving breakfast to attendees, how long will the keynote speaker stay for the conference, and if their department will provide any financial assistance. Representatives also inquire how was the keynote speaker chosen for the conference, how many FSU graduate students are expected to attend the event, how will the funds raised by the organization be used for expenses and a breakdown of the art supplies needed. FIRST PRO: Scriven is in favor of the conference, and acknowledges how they plan to reuse the art supplies for future events. Motion to call to question. Second. The organization notes how valuable this experience is and the importance of this conference is since there are very few graduate programs in Art Therapy. Bill passes 15-0-0; Contractual Service: $2,000, General Expense: $150, Food: $640.
