Resolution #: 01

Primary Sponsor: Representative Basualdo

Date: February 6, 2023

Whereas: COGS Code Chapter 201.6 regarding COGS General Restrictions on Spending states that “All events funded in whole, or in part, by COGS Funds or derivative resources must be equally accessible to all enrolled graduate students at Florida State University or serve a legitimate academic purpose. All purchases for events held off of the Florida State University campus require the approval of the Assembly by resolution in a majority vote”. This restriction included all RSO events on campus, requesting COGS funds.

Be it resolved by the 30th Congress of Graduate Students of Florida State University that: Upon the majority vote of this assembly, COGS Code Chapter 201.6 will then allow Wilderness Medical Society Shelter Skills and Exposure Training to take place.

Be it further resolved by the 30th Congress of Graduate Students of Florida State University that: COGS Code Chapter 201.6, solely allows for WMS to host an overnight outdoor event to expose attendees to survival and medical skills related to the risks of exposure and shelter building. The event will include a short hike to a campsite where attendees will be taught basics to shelter building and will be able to implement those skills, as well as understanding the importance of why shelter is necessary in emergency medical situations in the wilderness if medical care is not readily available.
