New Business:

- Resolution 2 Sponsored by the Academics & Student Life Committee: Support to Advance Diversity and Inclusion on Campus
Deputy Speaker Asturizaga thanked Representatives Baker, Lehn, Oseguera, Guilbeau as well as Inam Sakinah (PowerofWe Campaign), Matt (Graduate Assistants United) and those who contributed officially and unofficially to creating the resolution. Asturizaga further adds the importance of recognizing graduate student issues on campus. Resolution 2 was created as a result of many conversations pertaining to diversity, inclusion and discrimination on campus. The Academic and Student Life Committee attempted to create a proactive response as opposed to a reactive response. The intent of the resolution is to align with the university's initiative. Representative Lehn adds that is important to articulate that COGS supports all graduate students and the freedom of speech but doesn't condone hateful rhetoric. Deputy Speaker Asturizaga and Representative Lehn notes that the resolution is in alignment with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and supports the PowerofWE campaign. Asturizaga shared the experience of how to combat discrimination by stepping outside of your comfort zone and challenged other representatives to do the same. FIRST PRO: Lehn supports the resolution and how it represents COGS as an organization as well as FSU. Lehn adds that it is smart to articulate that the mission is aligned with the FSU mission statement. Mendez is also in favor of the resolution and believes it sends a good message. Motion to call to question. Passes. Vote by voice. Resolution 2 passes unanimously.

Purpose for which the funds will be used

The FSU Art Therapy Association (FSU ATA) conducts an annual workshop each spring in order to offer professional development for current FSU students and art therapy practicum supervisors in a variety of mental health service fields. The workshop is also open to future art therapy students that are visiting FSU for their graduate interview process. FSU ATA would like to expand the workshop by offering a speaker and a topic that will increase attendance from non-art therapy students and promote multidisciplinary discussions and collaborations across campus.

This year we are excited to announce the next spring workshop speaker Juliet L. King, MA, ATR-BC, LPC. Ms. King is an assistant professor and director of the graduate art therapy program at Herron School of Art and Design and adjunct assistant professor in the Department of Neurology at the IU School of Medicine. Ms. King has spent over 15 years as a clinician, administrator and professor of art therapy education. This year she will be presenting on the topic of art therapy and neuroscience.

The workshop will include a light breakfast, lecture, lunch, and a hands-on art experiential. The funds will be used to cover the costs for breakfast and lunch for up to 125 guests, as well as to purchase the necessary art materials for the art directive, and print announcements for the workshop. The funds will also cover the speakers honorarium, travel expenses from Indiana to Tallahassee and her food expenses.

What is the date and time of the event in which the requested funds will be used?

The workshop will be conducted on Saturday, February 25, 2016 from 8:30am-4pm.

Is there anything else you would like us to consider?

FSU ATA has been conducting this workshop for more than 3 years with the support of COGS and has been very successful.
