

71st Student Senate
Rules and Calendar Committee Report
July 24th, 2019

Call to Order: 6:04 pm

Members Present: Denton, Lavender, Villacorta, Rowan, Warren

Members Tardy: None.

Members Absent: Latham (excused)

Guests: Baxter, Slimak, Nelson

Chair Announcements: Please have questions prepared for candidates based on their answers in their Qualtrics.

Student Comments: None.

Committee Business:

Alain Acanda applied for wrong position, and needs to resubmit the Qualtrics form

Members being interviewed:

Robert Elder for Criminal Justice seat 23 (Summer)

Alain Acanda for Arts and Sciences seat 1 (Fall)

Elder was the first member brought in for interview. Went into questioning, then went into roundtable to deliberate.

Some goals listed were for increase of safety of students walking at night on campus, applied after the involvement fair. Failed to elaborate upon questions asked by committee.

Villacorta moved to call to question, Rowan seconds

Lavender: Yes

Rowan: No

Villacorta: No

Warren: Yes

The committee ties; Tie-breaking vote goes to Chair Denton

Denton: Yes

Candidate passes Rules and Calendar Committee

Elder was then brought in for interview. Went in for questioning, then went into roundtable to deliberate.

Involved with World Affairs program, second year on campus. Originally applied for the wrong seat on the Qualtrics form. Adaptive in working with others, strong communication in leadership. Goals to help support and grow the World Affairs Program. Wants to make opportunities and organizations more accessible to students. Wishes to set up workshops for differing political views. Urged to apply by Senator Walsh.

Villacorta moved to call the question, Warren seconds

Lavender: Yes

Rowan: Yes

Villacorta: Yes

Warren: Yes

Candidate passes Rules and Calendar Committee

New Business:

Villacorta moves to suspend pending review of Impeachment of Senator Napoli via Rule 7 and Rule 13 under Rules of Procedure

Lavender has a point of clarification on the process of this movement

No second is given, the motion fails

Unfinished Business: None.

Other Announcements:

Denton thanks for the movement in new business and suggests bringing attendance awareness up again in the fall.

Budget is proposing two new bills tonight at senate floor, and excited for the support of new members.

Date and Time of Next Meeting: TBD

Adjourned: 7:07 pm