Announcements:

- President Pro Tempore - I'd like to see us go through the Rules of Procedure in full before the end of the 72nd Senate. Make sure all the rules work and they're not outdated or ridiculous. Just as Finance does with Finance Code, etc, etc. We've had issues in the past with how Rules are handled. That'd probably mean moving the meeting time a few times.
- Guests -
 - John Alvarez: Good to see some familiar faces. I hope everyone is feeling refreshed and is feeling ready to come together and work together and participate as peers. I know it's been troublesome, we've all had our moments of intensity over the past few months but I want you to know I don't have any malice towards anyone and I look forward to keep working with everyone. I also wanted to come to Rules to remind the Chairs that the position you're in is of emotional importance for Senators in your committees and each other as much as it is procedural. It's important you remain caring and open to those in your committees.
