• Bill 66 sponsored by Senator Harmon (P):

o Opening Statement:

- Bill 66 transfers $2,480 from Senate Projects to cover the rental space at the Alumni Association for the SGA Inauguration. It's a one price deal as it also covers the food. It benefit students because they get to see their elected officials be inaugurated. All students are welcome to come.

o Technical Non-Debatable Questions:

- Hunter: Is this open to all students?
- Harmon: Yes
- Hunter: Is this hybrid or all in-person?
- Harmon: As far as I know, hybrid
- Tsouroukdissian moves to enter round-table discussion; Duchene seconds

o Round-Table Discussion:

- Tsouroukdissian: POI to the sponsor, is there reason why you didn't itemize the details and the food?
- Harmon: It's a one price deal so there's no breakdown of the details. The food comes with the rental space from the Alumni Association.
- Hunter: I want to speak in pro of this bill. Spring inauguration was a defining moment for SGA because we don't get to have everyone together very often. Funding this is really important for the inclusivity of SGA, but it also benefits students as well. I will be voting yes.
- Duchene: I appreciate President Harmon mentioning in his open statement how this positively impacts the student body, very pertinent to our committee.
- Hunter moves to pass by unanimous consent
- BILL 66 PASSES

- Bill 67 sponsored by Senator Harmon (P):
 - Opening Statement:
 - This bill is to transfer $250 from Senate Projects to Office of University Communications, Westcott Photography to pay for the photographer at inauguration. Anyone who wants to can get their headshot taken, including students and guests. $250 pays for the photographer, but we can take as many pictures as we want. They will be there from 3-7pm.
 - Technical Non-Debatable Questions:
 - Tsouroukdissian: When is inauguration?
 - Harmon: November 17th
 - Duchene: I attended the last inauguration, took a headshot, signed the waiver, but have not seen that headshot. If I were to take another one, how would we get access to the photos?
 - Harmon: That's Renee and I's fault. We didn't know how to share the photos without emailing everyone individually, but we thought Ben was going to put them on the website. Jacalyn will most likely get all of the photos this round since she's our advisor, so she would be the person you'd go to. I'll notify her.
 - Tsouroukdissian moves to enter round-table discussion; Hunter seconds
