Demetrius Wynn: Pride Student Union Executive Director

Senator Hookfin: What is Peacejam?

Senator Simm: How long have you been involved in PRIDE Student Union?

- Can you provide us with context and your experiences in your previous roles within PRIDE student Union?

- Why do you believe attendance has doubled at last year's Queer Prom?

Senator Durham: Can you provide us with some examples of PRIDE increasing community outreach and popping the "FSU bubble", in the future?

Chair Robertson: Please expand upon your vision for more political outreach within the PRIDE student Union.

Senator Durham: Please provide us with some characteristics that you possess that are ideal for a leadership.

Candidate passes unanimously.

Joelle Lawrence: Women Student Union Assistant Director

Senator Williams: How long have you been involved with the WSU?

- So you were a general member in years past and then joined the Executive board?

Senator Durham: How do you believe your experience as OWL coordinator will aid you in your role as Assistant Director?

Senator Hookfin: Can you provide me with a specific goal that you wish to accomplish, and then provide us with potential routes that you'd take to accomplish this goal?

Senator Simm: Can you give us context for your phrasing of woman as "womxn" on your application?

Senator Simm: According to your application you are a self-proclaimed "revolutionary". How will this affect you and your success in the role of Assistant Director?

Senator Williams: What motivated you to join the WSU Executive Board?

Senator Gomez: What steps would you be taking to improve confidence amongst the members of WSU?

Candidate passes unanimously.
