Old Business: none

New Business:

- Interview One- IRHC
 - Presentation- full board, advocates for 6700 residents on campus, does programming for these students through the 10 hall councils, currently working on gender-neutral housing initiatives, campus accessibility walk, 3 main accounts- vending, laundry, SGA funds, also has a private account, tabled at the involvement fair, attracted a lot of recruits,
 - Technical, Non-Debatable Questions-
 - Villacorta- where does the funding from the private account come from?
 - A: org called On Campus Marketing, fundraising done through them
 - Kill- no programming on budget listed for Jan., Feb., March, no money spent
 - A: budget hasn't been updated yet, will be updated due to the amount of events
 - Villacorta: how much is in the private account?
 - A: $25,000 in private account, used as reserve fund
 - Roundtable Questioning- Villacorta moves to enter roundtable, Adams seconds

- Q- Kill: what kind of pilot programs for the gender-neutral housing initiative are being considered?
 - A: being spearheaded by University housing, IRHC operating in support capacity
 - Deliberations- Donnelly motions to enter roundtable, Brink seconds
 - Villacorta: They did not include budgeting information or documentation for the private account that they claim has $25,000 in it, not sure why they didn't
 - Donnelly- other than that, it seems to be pretty well run, but events seem to have low turnout for the amount of students they serve
 - Call to Question
 - Adams
 - Villacorta seconds
 - Voting Results
 - Yes- (6) Adams, Donnelly, Brink, Toussaint, Kill, Villacorta
 - No- (0)
 - Abs.- (0)

- Interview Two- SCURC
 - Presentation- has currently spent money on travel grants, has had three events in Fall 2019, turnout is 0, 0, 5, respectively, collab events in spring have had 25- person attendance, has doubled amount of research
 - Technical, Non-Debatable Questions- none
 - Roundtable Questioning- Villacorta moves to enter, Toussaint seconds
 - Q- Villacorta: has attendance always been this much of a problem?
 - A: less attendance this year, has mainly focused on increasing submission to OWL, has doubled that
 - Q-Donnelly: how do you expect to allocate the $3000 for the OWL?
 - A: cost was cheaper last year because of submissions, but since they have doubled, they expect a larger book which costs more to print
 - Villacorta moves to exit roundtable, Adams seconds
 - Deliberations- Donnelly moves to enter, Adams seconds
 - Villacorta- event turnout is very poor, but the OWL doubling in submissions and the travel grants they provide are important to consider
 - Donnelly- they seem to be taking a step in the right direction, this may have been a problem with the last e-board that carried over, they should partner with UROP
 - Call to Question

- Villacorta
 - Kill seconds
- Voting Results
