Final Announcements:

- Chair England: The pronoun resolution has been written by Senator Russell and Senator Gabadage. This will be on first reading this Wednesday so we will have it next Monday. Forwarding letters can be located on the SGA website and go to the Executive Branch section and then locate the letters. We will be hearing Samantha Level next week. Last semester a rule was added to say that the Senate President and Chair England must have the letter 5 business days before senate. You should fill out an absentee form if you miss a meeting. Let me know so it is on his radar as well. I want to apologize concerning the Senate meeting and Julianna Strong. We will be hearing her this Wednesday. Monday, the 8th of February will be the Bureau Review presentations. I will be emailing the leaders tonight. For this meeting, we should be dressed professionally.

- Senator Nasworthy asks what committees Senate candidate to go through, Chair England answers that they go through Rules.
- Senator Nasworthy asks if he should introduce legislation to add Oversight to the list of committees that Senate candidates must go through. Chair England says that this is possibly a good idea.
- Chair England: We will move our meeting back one hour for next week.
