

My name is John Raymond Alvarez, and I did not spend any money for my reelection campaign during the Fall 2018 election cycle.

I had previously submitted this Final Campaign Expense Statement late on Thursday 10/18, but according to the email sent to me by the Supervisor of Elections, I must submit it again.

I apologize for any difficulties that may have been faced, and hope that this one is successfully received.

Herein Signed,

John Raymond Alvarez
