

Elections Commission Meeting – 11/17/2016

Meeting called to order at 5:30 PM with all Elections Commission members present

Election for vice-chair:

- Nathan Moon nominated himself
- Jenna VonSee nominated Lilly Sharpe
- Nathan Moon received one vote
- Lilly Sharpe received four votes
- One voter abstained
- Lilly Sharpe is the new vice-chair

Election for Secretary:

- Secretary position to be filled by Deputy-Chair (to be appointed by Jade)

Nathan Moon moved to adopt the Elections Commission Decorum Guidelines

- Elections Commission Decorum Guidelines adopted with a unanimous vote

Nathan Moon proposed finding (2) law students to represent the political parties in election violation hearings

Concerns that there may not be proper incentives for law students to want to participate

Jade will reach out to her advisor about what we would need to do to create these positions and amend the Elections Commission guidelines accordingly

- Proposed amendment to the guidelines:

- If an Elections Commission member has taken the Elections Commission test the previous year, they don't need to retake the test again

- Vote: passed unanimously

Vote to adopt the guidelines as is with the amendment regarding the Elections Commission test:

- Passed unanimously

Meeting adjourned at 6:06 PM
