STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Gabadage, Adams, and Louis Administration

- Kaitlynn Adams - Director of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion
    - Had quite a few meetings with PSU and WSU to get the DEI advocacy feedback to see what we can do. We have a list of things to do to support the Agencies, especially showing up in the spaces and engaging in communities we are not a part of
    - Meetings set up next week with the rest of the agencies and how we can support their general needs and wants.
    - Connected with UWF and UF DEI Director to see what they do and they are not doing anything different or more. It served primarily as a good connection.
    - WSU group met to get updated on everything. There is a meeting going to be set up with Ash to ensure proper representation.
- Liz Iaconis - Director of Academic Engagement
    - Dr. Barry at the AICE center is pulling all of the academic points. It is mandatory by the State of Florida that all Gen Ed classes have a sample syllabus on the registrar's website. This only extends to Gen Eds. We could potentially extend these requirements to other classes and grad student classes as well.
    - Will bring up the ability to add these earlier in the summer so that people are able to figure out their classes in advance.
- Mike Delcin - Director of Communications
    - We want to highlight the directors and their accomplishments once every two weeks. I am currently working on a post to highlight Liz for getting the GPA calculator.
- Rodney Wells - Director of External Affairs
    - The creation of an Inter Collegiate Council whose purpose is to cultivate a further relationship between TCC, FAMu, and FSU. Was able to work with Jack Rowan to pull the previous time that this was accomplished.
    - Garnet and Gold Votes Commission has launched to support voter initiatives. Shoutout to Kait Adams for
    - Block Party for Change! This event will showcase food trucks, voter initiatives, and make it similar to a fair-like event. Nimna has had conversations with Zachary Bell, SBP at FAMU. Working on a package to hel;p support students and Registered Student Organizations to support voting and participating in the legislative process.
    - Yard Signs are also something else that I would want to.
    - Killings to pass out stickers.
- Sam Youngston - Director of Investment

    - He was moved from the Election and Finance side of the commission before he could even start. He was moved to Agencies Bureaus, Affiliated Projects, and appointments side of the commission.
    - Regarding the Student Government Internal Review Committee, he has started to readapt the program to fit the upcoming calendars.
- Kenley Adams
    - Brandon Gabay has approached me and saw our minutes and also started an agency review handbook to help out current people. He has fantastic things and we should all join together for more progress and so we are not splitting resources. I will reach back out and coordinate meetings with Brandon and
    - The Council of Presidents is going to start meeting on Mondays. Please start submitting updates that deal with agency leaders so that I can also handle it on the back end for people to expand on, like to remind Presidents to fill out forms.
    - I also want to be able to give Legislative Updates in Senate so that we can keep the Agencies updates.
- Savannah Stewart - Director of Special Projects
    - SGA TODAY and the SGA Handbook meeting with Miranda tomorrow.
    - WSU group met today and figure out some things for them to accomplish for the Women's Honorary and got a to-do list together for Katie Simon to go ahead and get handled. Also, we have helped her out a bit with the financial processes by getting funding for PAC and Sweepings. In the future, they also want the initiative to be apart of
    - I have also been planning the State of The Student Body Address with a few people and hopefully we will get the invitations out today. Shoutout to Mike for making the graphic! We are all supposed to go so please go ahead and put it on your calendars. Khamare will be writing the speeches.
- VACANT - Director of Accessibility
- VACANT - Director of Wellness

Discussion

- Jack - Rodney, you can have a lot of signs and there has been a deal with the Senate that they will pay for half of the yard signs to ensure that SGA is working collaboratively to show that voting is a priority for us.
- Liz - Presidential Scholars has done the yard signs before, I can get the company name and get back to you.

_

- Sam - Savannah, can you explain what we are doing with the SGA Handbook?

- Savannah - Brandon is spearheading the Agency Handbook and we are doing SGA Today.
- Kenley - SGA Today is going to be turned more towards the Student view and the Agency Handbook is going to be tuned towards agency leaders and participants.
- Savannah - I have planned meetings about this to ensure we are going to have updated pictures and information. I will also get in contact with Brandon Gabay

- Kenley - We want to ensure that Agency Directors are kept up to date on everything Student Government, including the legislative processes of Senate
- Jack - That is super important. We also need to focus on making sure that the Senate has good liaisons that are communicating those differences in opinion and updates from the Student Senate to the agencies, bureaus, and other organizations.

- Savannah - Are we able to do nametags?
- Kenley - We will not be doing nametags with the SGA budget but we would be happy to figure out something else.

Announcements

- Jack - If everyone will go ahead and write two paragraphs in preparation for the state of the student body address, we can change the narrative of what Student Government does and we can just list out all of the accomplishments literally in the first two weeks and what we will continue to do.
