Roundtable Reports and Discussion
- Sarah: This is our second to last meeting! TJ has a meeting with county representatives tomorrow to talk about the mural location. Autumn has been working with Aaron to soft launch the land acknowledgement at a softball game and has been talking to Senate leadership about a DEI caucus.
- Malena: Live Well day happened! CHAW was very happy with it and wants to do it again. I delivered 10 hammocks to Strozier. We have the boxes and the straps, but we're still missing the other 10 hammocks. I have a meeting with the anti smoking initiative after spring break. I was working with a Senator about expanding the Strozier rental program. We came up with inflatable couches, the ones you run with to gather air, and foldable yoga mats. She will probably do it through Senate projects. We have a meeting on Wednesday with my connect from Strozier. The menstrual products in the dorms project has been on pause, but I'm going to circle back this week.

- Sarah: Is Strozier doing any advertising for the hammocks so students know they're available?
- Malena: We're not there yet. They have to catalog them first. I reached out to student pubs to make some sort of design with the Campus Rec, Strozier, and SGA logo. SGA should also pub it.
- Sarah: Ok great. I agree.
- Kolby: I was working on the transportation project, and the petition got enough signatures to put the question on the ballot. However, there has been a lot of discussion about the wording of the question because it doesn't state what the money would be used for. It was approved by the Chair of the Faculty Senate Sustainability Committee and the Director of TPS. There is still a push to change the wording or have it removed. Beyond that, I spoke to Seminole Dining today about the Union. They said there are too many corporate entities to try in the Union first, so they are going to try the reusable containers in 1851 first and see if it works out before scaling it up to the Union. This will be a long term project. The containers will be FSU themed, and the green containers will be donated to the Food for Thought Pantry to package leftovers. I had some conversations about Earth Day events, but there aren't concrete plans yet. I was informed of a nutrition month expo on March 19th. Partnering with CHAW and the pantry to do a food distribution. They asked if SGA wanted to table. Even though it's post-election, exec or Senate could table. In April, as part of Earth Day, one of the ideas is to do a clothing swap. I'm going to see if we could do a drive to increase the Professionole closet with winter clothes.
- Sarah: Did you ever have the meeting with McCullough?
- Kolby: It was canceled again.
- Sarah: Well that's unfortunate, but still a lot of wins. And it seems like a lot of these projects will be continued past your term.
- Kolby: Yes, I think the transition documents we discussed will be useful. Question- after we term out, who deals with the social medias?
- Sarah: I believe the next administration (big three) will do everything after inauguration until the other exec positions are confirmed by Senate. Any other questions?

Closing Announcements
- Sarah: Our last cabinet meeting will be on March 25th at 5:30pm in the SGA offices! Starting a transition document template. We can talk through that at our last meeting and complete them prior to inauguration.
