COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS

CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS & RESOURCES

There are over 20 student organizations, from cultural to service to Greek, that provide opportunities for students to engage with the Hispanic/Latinx community. A list can be found at sga.fsu.edu/hlsu/affiliates.

Each year, HLSU awards the Angie Cintron Memorial Scholarship to one undergraduate student who has contributed to the campus community through participation in the Hispanic/Latino Student Union.

CULTIVATING LEADERSHIP

The SGA Diversity & Inclusion Institute is an 8-week program held in the Spring Semester where participants are challenged to gain knowledge about how to support fellow students with various identities to create a more united campus.

The Leadership Learning Research Center offers the Undergraduate Certificate in Leadership Studies to prepare students for leadership in multiple contexts. Email Leadership-Studies@fsu.edu to schedule your advising appointment today!

ACADEMIC OPPORTUNITIES

FSU students have the opportunity to take academic classes and majors to learn more about Hispanic and Latino culture. Students have enjoyed learning from the following courses:

Latinx Leadership (LDR 2243): Explores the historical and cultural aspects of Latinx Culture and how it intertwines with leadership development, learning, and practice.

The Latin American and Caribbean Studies (LACS): Program offers a major and minor designed to inspire and develop knowledge and experience of the region.

Hispanic Cinema (SPT 3391): This course is a study of the films, movements, and directors of Hispanic cinema. The course is taught in English.

Introduction to Hispanic Cultural Analysis (SPT 3503): This course provides students with opportunities for detailed cultural analysis in the various geographies, historical contexts, and intellectual endeavors of the Hispanic world.

HISPANIC-LATINX STUDENT UNION

The Hispanic/Latinx Student Union is dedicated to unifying, informing, and serving the Hispanic/Latinx community at the Florida State University (FSU) and Tallahassee community. HLSU functions as an educational and cultural learning instrument for all students, faculty and staff. The students of HLSU pride themselves on being an open and diverse group, who try to implement inclusivity in everything they do. Join the HLSU for their monthly General Body Meeting and annual Hispanic Heritage Month events in September and October. Don’t miss their signature events such as Pageant and Gala!
