

Everyone's here except for Amanda.

- We are allowed to take a stance HB 999 as an organization, tomorrow there is a rally that you can get an excused absence for. We are able to follow whatever SGA does, and since they took a stance on HB 999, we are able to. However, SGA does not take a stance on Israel, we are not able to either. Show up to the rally tomorrow! April 11th will be the next rally. Email your politicians!
- HB 999 puts a lot of things at risk, including professors and quality of education.
- This would go into effect July 1st.
- There was a lot of drama about JSU being a pro-Israel organization versus not taking a stance.
- HB 999 was put on the SGA agenda by OGA, which is why they are able to take a stance on it.
- Emily's new office hours are going to be in the Globe and by appointment only.
- We eventually want to be able to have open dialogues regarding Israel.
- SGA has unwritten rules that must be followed.
- An Israel educational event will be held soon.
- Passover is being held on April 5th.
- We exist to serve Jewish students, not other Jewish organizations.
- One big Jewish freshman GroupMe would be nice.
- Our board applications will open the day after inauguration.
