Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Nemeth

Moment of Silent Reflection

Land Acknowledgement: Read by the Senate President

The Student Government of Florida State University acknowledges that it is located on land that is the ancestral and traditional territory of the Apalachee Nation, the Miccosukee Tribe of Florida, the Muscogee Creek Nation, and the Seminole Tribe of Florida. We pay respect to their Elders past and present and extend that respect to their descendants and to all Indigenous people. We recognize this land remains scarred by the histories and ongoing legacies of settler colonial violence, dispossession, and removal. In spite of all this, and with tremendous resilience, these Indigenous Nations have remained deeply connected to this territory, to their families, to their communities, and to their cultural ways of life. We recognize the ongoing relationships of care that these Indigenous Nations maintain with this land and extend our gratitude as we live and work as humble and respectful guests upon their territory. We encourage all to learn about and educate others on the contemporary work of the Indigenous Nations whose land we are on and to endeavor to support Indigenous sovereignty in all the ways that we can.

Barker: Served in the Summer Senate and looks up to many current senators. Wants to keep going.

Questioning

Randall asks the OGA candidate what state and local issue is facing the student body.
Murray: HB1, campus safety and campus carry, the book stipend, and fixing the name of a specific FSU building.

Marcus asks the OGA candidate to clarify on campus safety.

Murray: Some groups are advocating for campus carry and the carrying of non-lethal defense

Nasworthy asks the OGA candidate how they plan to balance their work in OGA with their Senate work.

Murray: Student government is already my life, this is just moreso. Their life is devoted to advocating for the university and its students. Thinks the two can compliment. Has a free schedule.

Wood asks the Business candidate about their involvement with the College

Barker: Was accepted to college in Summer, now sits on the Student Leadership Council. Now has an avenue to speak to these students and advocate for them.

Wood asks why the Business candidate chose Business over the double major of COSSPP.

Barker: Focused on business, thinks they can represent them better.

Nasworthy asks the COSSPP candidate about a conflict between the candidate and another senator and what was taken from that time.

Lessard: It was a unique time. Sometimes you need to pick your battles and not hold up the committee. You can be passionate, but you have to know when it's time to move on.

Tackett asks Senate candidates about their work in recent terms.

Lessard: Started in fall 2020 during Zoom Senate. Established the bedtime rule to ensure good lawmaking.

Barker: Since they were only in three meetings, they weren't able to do as much as they wanted. Wishes to reach out to others and get ideas for legislation.

Marcus asks the OGA candidate about how they plan to advocate for campus safety.

Murray: They advocates on behalf of the university, not press their beliefs.

Understands that the board previously moved against campus carry and will follow the views of the board.

Marcus asks OGA candidate how they plan on seeing the will of students.

Murray: They are our constituents and the board plans to listen to them.

Randall POC: OGA holds town halls to hear from the public, their meetings are public, and the Legislative Agenda must pass Senate

Tackett asks Senate candidates about future plans.

Lessard: There is a discrepancy with impeachment.

Barker: Worked with former Senator Puwalski in resolutions

Randall asks Senate candidates for concrete plans.

Lessard: They are a member of the LGBTQ+ community and is fighting for inclusive housing. Students should feel safe and included. Wants to work with PSU e-board and the Transgender Housing Initiative to make students feel safe. The discriminatory signage placed on campus is damaging and conversations about minority safety should occur.

Barker: The Student Body doesn't know about the resources on campus and wants to advertise them better. Is unsure how the Senate could help with that. Wants to work with the VSU to celebrate veterans.

Roy moves to forward candidates individually, Nasworthy seconds, no objection

Closing Statements

Lessard: Appreciates everyone's consideration on Homecoming week. Knows the Senate is not everyone's first choice to attend.

Murray: Echoes Lessard's sentiments and thanks senators for their questions. Loves FSU more than 99% of things in their life and wants to work for the community they love so much.

REFERRED TO INTERNAL AFFAIRS, THEN JUDICIARY, 10.20

Bills Second Reading:

Bill 51 Sponsored by Senator Randall (P)
To amend the Student Body Statutes to eliminate the Budget Committee in its entirety and restructure its current duties to the purview of the Finance Committee.
REFERRED TO JUDICIARY THEN RULES & CALENDAR, 09.08. AMENDED AND PASSED IN JUDICIARY, 09.14. TABLED IN RULES & CALENDAR, 09.22, 09.29, 10.06, 10.13. PASSED IN RULES & CALENDAR, 10.20.

Opening:

Randall: This may be the second biggest bill they proposed. This eliminates the Budget committee and moves its powers to the Finance committee. Finance can easily handle budget transfers. due to work on RTAC and PAC. Has seven reasons for the move. All the money people would be under one committee, Finance would have enough work to meet every week with the change, Would allow Senate to see how the budget and finance code works together, clarifies the role of money committees, increases involvement in budgeting process, makes fiscal responsibility under one committee, makes investigations about A&S fees be from the committee that allocates them. Putting everything financial under one roof.

Technical-Non Debateable:

Lessard asks when this would take effect.

Randall informs that the proviso reads that the bill takes effect at the start of the 74th Senate.

First Round of Pro:

POI Nasworthy: Do you think the move will alleviate issues with quorum for money committees?

Randall: More people in the process is never a bad thing. This mandates that more people get involved, which is worth looking at. Quorum will go up, members will go up.

POI Marcus: Have these committees ever been previously combined?

Randall: Not to my knowledge. Bills like this have been previously introduced. Has never been done before POI Tackett: What would happen if Bill 2022 gets vetoed?

Randall: It would follow the rules in the bill. This means it would go to the finance committee for hearings.

Linsky: This bill was a ton of work for Randall and is very good. Never understood why the two were separate when they have a shared knowledge. Asks why budget week couldn't be extended. This is a common sense solution. Asks whether this committee should be the same size. This consolidates the finance work of Senate.

Roy: Wasn't going to support at first. Looked for alternatives, but couldn't find one. This is a great solution and ensures a greater sense of community. There isn't a good difference between the two committees.

First Round of Con:

Gonzalez: For those who do not know, they serve as Budget chair. Has been a part of five funding processes. They are against every form of this bill. They only heard of this bill when it hit the rules committee. Disagreed with the lack of knowledge about the bill. Two previous budget chairs are against the bill. The practicality isn't there. It works in theory, but not in practice. Waiting until rest of round.

Second Round of Pro:

Lessard: Wasn't a lot to do in finance, but more could have been done. These committees are so closely related that separation doesn't make sense.

Linsky: Asks out loud about whether there would be any interest in Budget absorbing Finance. Felt like they were close to the Sweepings committee and believes that the same exists in budget. Asks again if this change would alleviate concerns.

Second Round of Con:

Gonzalez: That is a totally different issue. The sponsor has consistently brought up quorum, but this issue is Senate-wide. Engagement will not be improved by the consolidation of the two committees. People don't want to work with numbers.

Merging the two committees won't solve the issue. The bureaucratic issue is very difficult for organizations. This bill cannot be based off of COVID Budget committees. The committee is just getting back on its feet. The committee is supposed to write the SAP allocations, Sports Club Council, Homecoming Council, CLCs, etc. This change has a large magnitude. Would leave the committee in a bad situation with too much work. Senators don't want to engage. The standard shouldn't be based off everyone wanting to work. Budget should've been reached out to.

Third Round of Pro:

Third Round of Con:

Tackett: Still undecided. The whole process is complicated. This is one of our few requirements under Florida Statutes to allocate the budget. We have issues, but it's scary to think that the budget process could work under this. Liked the sunshine provision previously suggested.

Wang: Has a few issues with it. The sunshine wasn't added in because it could just be repealed. The budget process is huge, so it shouldn't be shifted off. This doesn't fix the engagement issue or the quorum issue. Doesn't see the quorum issue being solved by this. Finally, this bill is based on the current senate, which might not be the same senate as the future holds.

Fourth Round of Pro:

Lessard moves to table, Marcus seconds, Randall objects. Lessard does not withdraw.

Vote on motion to table: 18-11-0

Bill 51 is tabled

Bill 60

Sponsored by Senator Tackett, Linsky (P)

To fund the ACE Learning Center for monies to improve outreach and promote their services to the student body. REFERRED TO SLAA THEN BUDGET, 10.13. PASSED IN SLAA, 10.18. PASSED IN BUDGET, 10.19.

Opening:

Tackett: This is the easiest bill they've ever done. Sweeping accidentally forgot to fund ACE. This restores their funding. Money is for T. Shirts, Pens, snacks, etc. Issue with including cents in the bill Linsky: This was my fault, the line item went missing. Hopes this can pass. Found out from the director that the committee forgot. Is embarrassed by the mistake and wants some "CYA" by the Senate. The last thing they want is an organization to think the committee didn't care about them.

Technical Non-Debatable Questions:

First Round of Pro:

Nasworthy moves to amend to round up to $2010, withdraws.

Lessard: ACE does great work, we should fund.

POI Randall: Please explain the importance of the healthy snacks and t-shirts.

Tackett: For finals weeks and for advertising

POI Randall: Is variety of healthy snacks a brand?

Tackett: No, its a list

POI Randall: Are they getting two of every healthy snacks?

Tackett: Has a list of healthy snacks that will be bought for both semesters

POI Randall: Why is there a specific decimal point for healthy snacks.

Tackett: that's what it added up to\

POI Randall: The quantity means one for each semester?

Tackett: Yes

Randall moves to amend to add "for a semester" to the first line item, Nasworthy seconds, Tackett friendly, no objections. Adopted.

POI Randall: Is there a reason they don't want to give out snacks in summer?

Tackett: Lack of OPS-paid student

POI Randall: Are the vendors approved?

Tackett: Yes

POI Randall: Senate doesn't pay set-up charges, so why are we paying?

Tackett: Because they are budgeted

Linsky: If you don't like it, vote no.

POI Randall: Is ACE budgeted?

Harmon: Yes

POC Gonzalez: ACE Center is not budgeted anymore.

POI Lessard: Don't they have to go through PAC?

Harmon: They don't have to, but they can.

POC Roy: They probably can't go through PAC.

Roy: This is a great resource and should be paid. The charges are okay and understandable. will be voting yes

First Round of Con:

Roy move to call the question, Lessard second, no objection

Closing:

Tackett: Not expecting this to be such a hot topic. Not budgeted, but they can't go to PAC, so we'll do it here. This should pass.

Linsky lists the "Healthy snacks" in the bill.

Vote: 27-0-1 BILL 60 PASSES

Closing Announcements

Nasworthy: RTAC has a lot of money and no members, if you know anyone, ask them to apply. Wants permanent members so orgs don't have to wait. In each election, people are being deadnamed. AD Soto wants a bill to address this discrimination through the registrar and HR. This issue should be addressed.

Lessard: It's good to be back.

Marcus: Homecoming week is still going on. Please come to Odds and Evens on Landis. Come to the events! There is rock climbing, tug of war, etc. The Homecoming Parade is Friday, Grouplove is playing at Homecoming Live. Go to Club Downunder because their events are great!

Randall: Club Downunder is funded by the Union, so go to them. The issue with the ballot seems like a technical issue that is caused by a database problem. Address questions to Ben Young to try to solve the problem. In regard to Bill 51, please call me if you have any issues or questions. This is a large change, but a good change. I will be working over the next week to tell the Senate why it's a good thing. Please talk to me. I kept it in Rules so there was enough time to discuss it, which is why it was withheld from some. Use the time to think about it.

Gonzalez: The Black Student Union has been killing homecoming. They will be hosting a Homecoming tailgate and will be at the parade. They were over capacity at any events, which caused some issues. The powderpuff game was a huge success as well as the pageant. Budget week is next week so come out to hear what each organization is. We want you to come out to the hearings. Be a part of the process.

Roy: Student Academic Programs have opened up with a $12k budget. This is made for orgs that are linked to an academic department. While this is not publicly advertised, please reach out to orgs that may qualify to apply. Please reach out to myself or Senator Russell about SAP. New edition of the Tyler Roy News with a legislation tab. Delivers an Andrew Carnegie quote as we move closer to the new Senate. Work with the new senators to get them more involved and more understanding of the process.

Officer Announcements

Rowan: Give Clerk Connor a round of applause for her great works because doing the minutes tonight was close to being in hell. A Senate crash course is on the way. The World Affairs Program will be going to NCSC in DC next weekend to compete in our largest conference of the year, so wish us luck!

Connor: Thanks to Jack for taking minutes tonight, I won't be here next week. There is a senate clerk email in order to ensure organization, so please use it. A committee is about to open up to discuss pedestrian and bicycle safety on campus. People died on campus from it recently and a genuine conversation is needed. Please reach out if you are interested in serving on the committee.

Wang: Senate crash course is on the way, date is TBD. Please get your fellow senators to come to Senate because it was embarrassing that we didn't have quorum at first.
